School Boards To Discuss Finances

The question of a bond issue for building purposes and the increase of the mandatory tax rate to 75 cents will be discussed at a special called meeting of members of the old and new school boards next Monday night. The bond issue suggested by Hardwig Peres, president of the present board, is $2,500,000.

The decision to call a joint meeting was reached at the regular meeting of the board Monday night. At this meeting it was announced that plans had been drawn for improvements at Madison Heights school, providing for three classrooms and an auditorium which could be converted into three more classrooms. into three more classrooms
